General Information and Building History

Opening in 2008 the Town Toyota Center is a 4,300-seat multi-purpose arena in Wenatchee Washington. The arena was built and is owned and managed by the Wenatchee Public Facilities District, or PFD. It is the home of the Wenatchee Figure Skating Club, Wenatchee Amateur Hockey Associate, the the Wenatchee Wild of the British Columbia Hockey League (BCHL) and several other local and regional skating organizations/clubs.

Since the opening in 2008, the Town Toyota Center has hosted performances from a wide range of Artist including Lee Ann Rimes, Jeff Dunham, Marco Antonio Solis, Harlem Globetrotters and Kelly Clarkson to name just a few.

Not only has the Town Toyota Center hosted great entertainers and theatrical performances over the years, but it also home to one of the most successful amateur hockey teams in the past decade, the Wenatchee Wild.
